1. WHO STILL RECRUITS LATE

Signing in sports other than football and basketball opens the second Wednesday of November (D1 Bylaw 13.02.13.1(f)); football regular signing opens the first Wednesday of February (13.02.13.1(e)). Schools set their own final signing dates, so many keep filling rosters into spring. Programs with seniors leaving, a coaching change, or a recruit who backed out often have late needs. Check rosters yourself.

2. THE DOORS

- D2: athletics aid exists, often partial. Contact rules are broader than D1.
- D3: no athletic aid (see D3 Path).
- NAIA: separate association, own eligibility center. `TO VERIFY` current NAIA rules.
- JUCO: a two-year route (see JUCO to D1).

3. THE 90-DAY SPRINT

DAYS	DO THIS
1-7	New film or verified marks; one-page profile; core-course check with counselor
8-21	40-program list across all levels; first emails
22-45	Follow-ups every 14 days with something new; ask HS coach to call 5 programs
46-75	Visits (official visits need the Eligibility Center account for D1, Bylaw 13.6.3); apply for admission and aid
76-90	Compare offers with the Offers & Signing Day sheet; decide or extend the plan

4. GAP-YEAR CAUTIONS

D1 has rules on delayed enrollment and organized competition after high school that can reduce seasons of eligibility. `TO VERIFY`: the exact 2026-27 D1 Bylaw 12.8 / 14.2 provisions on delayed enrollment for your sport before taking a gap year or post-grad year. Ask each school's compliance office in writing.
